Crossharbour Site Origin Selection

Two existing public footways intersect the site boundary at distinct northern access locations

A and B are planning proxy origins located directly on reviewed footways. Crossing angles are approximately 87° and 82°; private/service links and tangential contacts are excluded.