Crossharbour Site Origin Selection

Two existing public footways intersect the site boundary at distinct northern access locations

A and B are planning proxy origins at distinct existing northern boundary crossings; private/service links and tangential contacts are excluded.